

Secretary's report 2017

In the Club year, December 1 2016 – November 30 2017, I was advised of the following Club members whose Airedale Terriers gained titles.

- B&N Brooks Supreme Champion Clydebrook Spiced Rum (Imp UK)
- B&N Brooks Champion Clydebrook New Tricks
- K&J Campbell's Champion Tjuringa Carmen Jones
- L&C Duff's Champion Airewood Arms Of An Angel

I am aware there were others but members did not officially advise so they are not included in this list.

All necessary documentation and submissions following the AGM have been sent to the Incorporations Association and VCA, including updates on the Model Rules.

Correspondence continued with various stakeholders regarding the proposed government legislation (Domestic Animals Amendment Bill 2016)

Another successful Bush Day was held at Old Iron Park, as well as a grooming day held at The Park in October.

An article was submitted to NATA.

A successful Championship Show, luncheon, lecture and various social events were organized for our overseas judge Dr Valeria Rickard and her husband John. Thanks to off committee person David Dunne for his assistance in transport during these events. Donations made by attendees from the lecture conducted by Dr Rickard was made to the Canine Museum.

Sashes were organized for the Royal Melbourne Show as well as for international shows at Montgomery and Hatboro.

The Club collection of Airedaler magazines have been bound and given to the VCA library to be housed safely.

Club members Sue Wilson, Ken Campbell, Maree Carroll, Di Barclay and Peter and Jan Hatton supported the terrier testing night by taking dogs for aspirants and handling dogs for the testing.

Negotiations regarding visa entries for 2018 judge Sergey Nikulin from Russia continue.

Rehome: There have been 4 successful rehomes of Airedales via the Club.
