President's Message

On behalf of the committee, I would like to extend a warm welcome today to our judges, stewards, reps and exhibitors alike - I hope that you enjoy your day with our club!

As you can see, we are in a different location for this year's April show - and as with all things new - there may be a few teething troubles - however, we hope that you are not too inconvenienced by the club having to use these top rings and share the grounds with other clubs today - hopefully it will all add to the atmosphere of show/trial day!

Our breed judge, Mrs Beth Warman, joins us today from New Zealand and we hope that she enjoys this appointment and her time in Australia. Property will be judged by breed specialist Mrs Lorraine Warren-Powell (Tuckonie Kennels) and the obedience and agility rings will be presided over by Mrs J Walder, Ms D Hollett and Mr B Almond who have joined us from various spots around NSW. Our reps today are Mrs Bev Cavanagh (Breed) and Mrs P Smith (Obedience) - thank you all for accepting your invitations to share this event with us.

Our trophy steward, Colleen Finch, has presented the club with a lovely array of trophies and gifts - thanks Colleen - and thanks also to Alice Baxter for again organising the promotions table featuring lots of Border Collie items - it is certainly worth a visit! These tables are located near the secretary's tent. To the balance of our committee and other club members we also extend thanks for their assistance in organising this show/trial - these events would not be possible without your support and we really do appreciate it.

The club is always looking for ways to improve our shows/trials and if you have any suggestions which may help exhibitors get more enjoyment from these days, please let us know!

Good luck everyone - enjoy your day and your dogs!

Cheers

Lauren Somers

President
