Introducing our Judge Mr David Todd (UK)

David Todd - Chataway

My name is David C. Todd of the Chataway Affix. I live near Edinburgh in Scotland at the top of the United Kingdom, famous for Whiskey, Haggis, Nessie and Kilts!!!

My Journey in dogs started in 1975 when we purchased a family pet Cocker spaniel. She was Blue roan and became my constant companion around the Border Village of West Linton. The Village lay host to Margaret Struthers of Daydawn Cockers and we became friends and I ended up helping in the Kennels during my Holidays and at weekends. From this Kennel a Golden boy Daydawn Drambuie became my first Co-owned Show dog and we had some modest but delightful wins. He was used by a few breeders and I bought in a Golden daughter of his as a foundation bitch...she produced my first Sh Ch C. The News Editor.

During this time I found a two week stint at the Lynwater Kennel becoming a ten year working relationship and then friendship to this day. For the Lynwater Kennel I made up champions in Blue roan, Golden (including BIS at The Cocker Spaniel Club), Orange and white (wins included BOB and Group1 at Crufts) and Liver Roan. For myself I have had Show Champions in Black, Blue Roan and Golden. I Breed both Solids and Partis. I also, being a dog lover, have owned and bred other breeds making up ch and sh ch in Parson Russel Terriers, Kerry Blue Terriers, Beagles, Hungarian Vizslas, Curly coated Retrievers and Labradors and handled 2 Pointers to their titles.

I have awarded CC's on Numerous occasions including The Cocker Spaniel Club - in Cockers and also award CC's in Vizsla. B listed for Labs, Pointers, Parsons and Kerry Blues. I have included a photo of my 2 latest Sh Champions Lynwater Classic Design and Glentree Tradition. I like to breed but when I see a super pup in the nest its hard not to be tempted..... These two boys are at home with me and 2 Curly Sh Ch and some promising daughters from both boys.....
