PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Well, here we go again approaching the Christmas festive season. I hope you have all had a good year with your endeavours and achieved all that you expected and hoped for.

Just like to wish everyone a very Merry Christmas and a safe and Happy New Year. Fantastic time of year to catch up with family and friends.

Enjoy your time off if you are lucky enough to have some owing and keep yourself and your animals safe in the upcoming season ahead. Enjoy your time around the rings whatever your chosen disciplines are and I look forward to seeing you all next year.

Cheers

Alan Wallace

SECRETARY'S REPORT

Has anyone mentioned "the older you get, the faster the years fly by?"
IT'S TRUE!

At the conclusion of 2024, I would like to sincerely thank all those members, committee and executive, for all they have done for the Club during the year. The Collie Club IS its members. Personally, I am proud to be a part of such a group of people.

This being the silly season, I take the opportunity to wish all a wonderful time being silly. Good luck with Santa's visit; a table laden with great food; a fulfilling time with family; fun with the dog/s; a positive beginning to the New Year; and the opportunity to be silly in whatever excites you: is what I wish for everyone.

Thank you all for your support this year and hoping we can tackle 2025 with renewed vigour!

Cheers,

Kaye Reeves

All were welcomed into their roles and the exiting members thanked for their work during the year.

8. Election of Judges :- Championship Show 2026

Discussion was brought up by Sue Kennedy over the validity of the nomination of Guy Jeavons due to him not being recognized as a Specialist/nor was a judging bio presented in the Chatter (as per a bylaw believed to be dating to the year 1987) On the night there was not a list of Club bylaws easily accessible and several members believed this bylaw only related to judges nominated for 'National Shows' . Members involved and the executive will look into this matter and report back with a view to making alterations at a General Meeting.

Discussion was also held over the 'costs' of having an overseas judge. In today's decreased entries and the rising costs it imposes onto the club – although the club is currently in a 'healthy' position fundraising needs to be started to support this venture. The incoming committee will look into the use/purpose of the 'Handbook acc" as sales of Handbooks should in reality be considered fundraising and be accessible for other club ventures not solely the financing of another handbook.

In light of the robust discussion surrounding the 2nd nominee Mr G Jeavons the nominator was given the option to withdraw the nomination, which was declined and the nomination went ahead.

Result 1st Ms Maxine Mellish (UK)
2nd Mr Guy Jeavons (UK)

Voting papers were then destroyed Mvd Alan Wallace 2nd Kate Baker

Open Show 2025

A single nomination of Ms Clare Van Der Wolde was accepted

The Secretary will move to contract both these judges as per protocol

9. New member in attendance Nicole Bolden was welcomed by the President and general membership.
10. Date for AGM 2025 23/10/2025 Thursday 20:00 (8pm) KCC Park
11. Meeting closed at 21:19 all were thanked and invited to partake in light refreshments.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Seems just yesterday we had our last AGM and yet here we are again.

Another good year for the club being able to deliver both our Champ and Open shows this year. A good entry for both shows and with the help of the committee it all went well and to schedule.

Our 2025 Champ Show Judge had to withdraw due to health reasons and a very suitable replacement has agreed to judge for us.

Thank you to the outgoing committee for all their support and hard work over the year and I look forward to working with the incoming committee that have put their hands up to continue the viability of our Club. Thanks to those that have put their hands up again by attending Dogs Day out and Dog Lovers and promoting our wonderful breed.

Look forward to seeing you all around the rings over the coming year.

Alan Wallace

SECRETARY'S REPORT

My report tonight encompasses the good and the not so good in our Club.

First, I wish to thank most sincerely those members who continually contribute to the running of the Club and its activities throughout the year.

Attending, entering and contributing to the Shows in May, to a greater or lesser degree – you are much appreciated by me.

Providing their time, energy and dogs for the Judges' training and examination event in August I thank: Alan and Jo (with 3 dogs!); Sandra and Bryan; Sue and David; Jackie; Ness and Mallory; and for gifting Mackie to me for the day – Shelley Donald. Thank you.

Special thanks to Christine Baker for her assistance this year. Special thanks to Sigrid for taking on the catering role, and to Kate Baker for all her work. Sadness that Kate is not standing again for the coming year – Kate we have your telephone number and we know where you live!

The “not so good” for me is the constant struggle to engender enthusiasm for the Club and its operation. We are shrinking in number, so more effort is required from the few, and the demise of the Club is looking more possible in the future. I won't mention the aging of the contestants!

Politics, argument, dissatisfaction with the Club and its workers are all too common and do not make for a positive and thriving environment. One of my mantras as Secretary is that I am always happy to do the work. Sometimes the effort is rewarded by success for the Club, and sometimes it results in challenges for me.

Welcome back to those generous members who are returning to the committee this year. A cohesive, positive attitude is required to continue as a harmonious group, where the Club is the recipient of our best efforts, and to ensure it has a long and prosperous future.

Kaye Reeves

TREASURER'S REPORT

Financial Year ended 30th September 2024

I present the Audited Accounts and Balance Sheet for the Financial Year ended 30th September 2024 to the Members.

Leaving out the major distortions of the Handbook, overall net figure appears similar to last year. However, closer examination shows that the General account made a loss of $665.67 – largely offset by a $462-43 profit in the Handbook account and $150.00 in Rescue, leaving us with a small deficit for the year.

Fund raising again has been non existent apart from raffles. Our main show raffle fell way short of the previous year because there were very few outsiders to boost ticket sales. Great to have the space to ourselves but not so great for selling raffle tickets! Thank you to all those who contributed to the prizes this year.

With the prospect of an overseas judge on the horizon, we will need some serious action to provide for what is likely to be a very expensive exercise. We need to start now, so please bring forward your ideas and let's get started! There simply are not the numbers of dogs around that there once were, and expenses have gone through the roof!

Dog Sports appears to have fared better than it actually did. The cost of sashes from Marellen Show Ribbons $401.85 is listed under Champion & Open Show instead of Dog Sports on the Balance Sheet. Under Expenses it should read Champion/Open Show $3,359.75 and Dog Sports should read $1,480.97. Although not quite breaking even in the year just ended, we are hoping to turn this around in the current financial year with the new Rally classes organised by Amy Butler being well supported.

Members' subscriptions are up slightly from last year, but these figures can be distorted depending on how many pay in September vs October, which is technically the next financial year. We have welcomed some new members but sadly a few of our long time members have chosen not to continue. Again, most of the Chatters being delivered via email has enabled us to avoid any increase in membership fees for now.

The accounts show that the Club is in a sound financial position and should be able to remain so into the future, provided we can cover the cost of the future Shows.

AGM report to Oct 2024

In 2022 Zac/Hades came to us due to behaviour problems due to heightened anxiety issues. His owners had vet and behaviour advice from experts and were told that he should be PTS because there was nothing further that they could do. As a last resort the owners contacted us to see if we could take him on. After months of being fostered with Jackie he was taken off his drugs and behaviour was assessed. Zac has problems handing over control to his handler therefore cannot be rid of his anxiety. He was sent to Mark to be assessed, and Mark believes that he isn't bad enough to be PTS but will need to go to a special home that can continue working with him. We finally found Zac the perfect home in July 2024. He is still a handful and anxiety levels are heightened easily but he is the best he will ever be. His new owners will continue to be supported by Mark, and they love him to bits. He has finally got a forever home.

Oct 2023 - Cashew – sable and white (possibly collie X) came to us with behavioural problems due to no training or boundaries given to a youngster. He had been with the breeder to a home, then to the pound, to another home, then to another home before he came to us as a 10 month old puppy. He was boisterous and mouthy. He was placed into foster care with a new fosterer/trainer Monica to be taught some manners. After some time with Monica, he was placed back into Katrina's care. July 2024 he was placed in his new home. I understand Cashew is going great guns with his new family, he's enjoying classes at their local dog club.

Nov 2023 – Baz now Louie – Sable merle. Came to us as a 14 month old puppy surrender. Due to a change in living arrangements of the owner. He had been very loved. He has been the easiest foster for a long time. Adopted Jan 2024. The sweet boy now has a loving active family and Kelpie to look after. He is loving life.

May 2024 – Felix – Rescue gave assistance in trying to get him back to his breeder in Vic. We managed to assist in getting him out of the pound in WA, but due to circumstances he wasn't allowed out of the state. He is safe in a new home in WA.

July 2024 – Eleanor – Border collie. An assist in rehoming a border collie at the request of Jane Armatys QLD rescue. Happily rehomed.

Updates:

Buddy 2023 - he's also enjoying dog club classes and doing well.

Jackie Garvin and the Victorian Collie Rescue Crew - Oct 2024

Rally and Obedience Trial Results

Our annual trial was held on the evening of the 14th of December in near perfect weather. As is usual with sports trials, clubs are expected to put up and pack down trial rings themselves, so on Friday afternoon Katrina, Amy, Monica and Clare were out setting up rings and organising equipment.

We had a smaller entry this year which may well be the result of cost of living pressures and Christmas starting to bite but even so everyone seemed to have a fantastic time and the relaxed and happy atmosphere was certainly commented on and appreciated by officials and exhibitors alike. With the Dogs Day Out Christmas Market area having been on the same ground the Sunday prior, it took multiple sweeps by judges and our set up crew to collect all the dropped bits of chews, zip ties, tinsel and whatever else off the ground. The dogs certainly found the grass very sniffy, and that didn't help the pass rate in some of our classes. Even so we had some beautiful rounds. We had lots of involvement from our Rally training group as well both as stewards and competitors.

Dog Lovers

Well, our band of happy helpers were out in force again this year. Amy Butler has now taken over the role of organiser which has allowed Jackie Garvin to help out as her busy schedule permits. We had a full panel of dogs and helpers - the only thing missing was a tri rough!

Dog Lovers was held at the show grounds this year along with the Cat Lovers show (the cats were in a different building!) and we were down from 3 days plus set up to 2 with the set up on the Friday afternoon. We had a nice corner stand opposite the Lappie Club and we think it looked pretty good.

Things were busy as ever, the dogs were fabulous and so well behaved all weekend. Thank you to all our helpers - David and Sue Kennedy with Kelsey and Ryker, Dave Wall with Chance, Jackie Garvin with Sailor and Cara, Katrina Wenzler and Ahsoka and Ness Lenarcic with Erik and last but not least Amy Butler and Deo and Katachi.

Dogs Day Out

The club also hosted a stand at KCC for the Dogs Day Out, Dogs Victoria's annual open day. This stand was manned by Amy Butler, Jo-Ann Wallace and Katrina Wenzler on a rather warm, December day. It was a busy day with a lot of the general public out having a look. We had roughs and smooths on the stand in every colour and they were all very well behaved.
