MEET YOUR JUDGES

Ms LORRAINE NEILSON

The bug for showing dogs started when we had a pet Corgi, like all pet owners ours was the best, so I started taking him to local school competitions. My dad was always of the belief, if you want to do something or learn it, you do it right from the start.

I had known Glenyse Acreman (Hillacre) for some time, through school and gymnastics, where her mother, Norma, would walk a couple of dogs to meet Glenyse. This was my first introduction to Shelties. Christmas 1964 I got my first Sheltie – Hillacre Hercouris (Velvet), with Velvet there was no stopping me wanting to go to dog shows.

My father was a police photography and knew Bill Crowley. Bill was on the KCC Committee and he recommended dad for the position of KCC photographer – a position he held until he passed away.

Glenyse's judging took her to WA where with help from other Sheltie people she was able to purchase Ch Abonnie Tru Blu from Aileen Kuret. Once I saw Blu I was smitten, I knew I must have a blue merle Collie.

In 1976 I purchased my first Collie from Gail and Rob Doe (Robgai), Ch Robgai Misty Blu, and a lifetime friendship was made with Gail and Rob. I purchased a bitch from Abonnie and did the no no mating blue to blue. One male puppy survived, Ch Ravelin Blu Rival (Starsky). A highlight of his show career was to win BOB from puppy class at the Melbourne Royal from an entry in excess of 250 Collies.

Thanks to Gail Doe I have had the privilege of handling some top winning Collies taking them to BISS, BIS and BOB at various Royals. Dogs such as the legendary Ch Robgai Rain Chief, Ch Robgai Frosty Sunrise, Ch Robgai Rain Lord, Ch Robgai Ticks All The Boxes and the list goes on.

I have served on several All Breeds and Specialty committees and have owned, bred and successfully shown Welsh Corgis, Shetland Sheepdogs, Collies (Rough), American Cocker Spaniels, Borzois and a Miniature Dachshund.

Since obtaining my Group 5 license I have had the privilege of judging in most states of Australia and in New Zealand.

I look forward to judging the Collie Club of Victoria Championship Show and consider this to be an honour and a privilege.

MR WAYNE SHARP

I have been involved in group 5 breeds for over 30 years now.

Breeds I have owned, bred and shown are Collie Rough, Kelpie, Border Collie, Finnish Lapphund and Swedish Lapphund.

I was fortunate enough to have been taught about Collies by the wonderful Zora Mitchell.

In the past, I owned dogs from Braeden kennels. I appreciate all the characteristics of the Collie breed and the variety of colours Collies come in.

Thank you to the Collie Club for asking me to Judge the breed which gave me so many happy memories as I was growing up.
