

German Shepherd Dog Club of Tasmania

Championship Show 12 February 2023

Judge: Melanie Groth (NSW)

I would like to thank the German Shepherd Dog Club of Tasmania for the invitation to judge. It's always a pleasure to come down to Tasmania and catch up with the exhibitors in a relaxed atmosphere. For such a small club they do a mighty job to try and meet the needs of their club members. This weekend was no exception.

It was great to catch up with Jane Pike, my co-judge and surveyor for the weekend. After the survey on Saturday I was treated to a visit to the Internationally acclaimed Contemporary Art Museum, Mona. I have wanted to go there for such a long time and never quite managed it. It was sensational and well worth the time spent if you get the chance. After my cultural fix, the club treated Jane and I to a lovely pub meal and a relatively early night.

Whilst the entry for this show was not quite as big as it has been in the past, there were still some high quality animals exhibited. The Long Stock Coats aren't as high in numbers down in Tasmania as they are in other states. The two stock coat male and female challenge winners were Best in Show and Runner Up Best in Show. The open female Ondja du val Danzin is a high quality, dry and firm, very good moving bitch and maturing very nicely into a lovely adult. Obama performed really well and was shown in firm condition. They were both easy winners and unchallenged in my opinion. The Alwin puppy bitches were pleasing as was the Uno daughter who was Reserve challenge. My Long Stock Male challenge was the lovely Jack v Fenrir who wasn't so happy during the gun test. Like all things one must view things in context and I made the decision to drop him a grading due to his reaction. He was anatomically the best male dog in the show; however, his grading precluded him from advancing any further.

Thank you to the Show team led by Zac Munnings; Annette as always, a great steward keeping things on track and the steno team; Gabrielle who was rescued by Jane who volunteered to help out on the keyboard. Jane and I had a nice time working together and it's always nice to discuss how we word things differently and learn from each other's descriptions. Thank you to Gail Donald who took some lovely photographic memories for the exhibitors over the weekend and to all the volunteers who helped out over the weekend. We were blessed with great weather and terrific sportsmanship.

2.5 years 64/32cm Dropped incisors lower jaw. Just above medium size, strong substantial long stock coat male of good type. Good head and expression with dark masking, medium eye color, rather small ears; the tilted right ear should be much firmer in stance and in movement. Strong neck, level wither, straight back, well moulded slightly short croup. Very good fore and hindquarter angulation, short hocks. Standing at maximum chest depth, the pasterns should be much firmer. Steps slightly narrow at rear with good hock firmness, stands and steps not quite correct at front. In movement displays a good sequence of steps with reasonably good balance. Should be a little firmer in ligamentation overall.
