MINOR PUPPY BITCH

1 ST	ZULLO & PINKER'S	BULLACKTIV CHEAT CODES	S: GCH BULLACKTIV DEVIL MADE ME DO IT D: CIB A2O CH SUP CH BULLACKTIV STOP ON RED	11-NOV-24

Her underline is pretty as well. While she is of a completely different type than the winner today, she was in contention.

JUNIOR BITCH

1 ST	MORTIMER'S	AELFHIRE DAISY DUKE	S: AELFHIRE DEVILS WAR D: AELFHIRE DEVILS ANGEL	23-DEC-23
This is a substantial white bitch with plenty of bone and substance; she looks like a classic brood bitch. She has a gentle, unexaggerated profile, and her eyes are down and away from her profile. Her Roman finish is distinct and her underjaw is strong. Her ears are placed correctly, and her skull is flat between them. When looking at her head from the front, and more importantly when feeling her head under the eyes, I became appreciative of her virtuous head strength. In spite of her length of back, she still has a pleasing underline. Her rear construction is another plus, her tail is set on low and thick at the base, her stifles are bent but not overly so, and her hocks are well let down. While she has some forechest, she really could use more length of neck and a better layback of shoulder. Her virtues outweighed her front faults, which is why she was left standing at the end of the day.
2 ND	CROWTHER'S	DEROYALE MY LITTLE FIRECRACKA	S: CHRYSALISS WAYWARD SON D: DEROYALE MY LITTLE SHOW GIRL	13-FEB-24
Feminine tri-color bitch. She has a pretty, arching profile which matches her long arching neck. Her bite is correct. She has a straight front and her movement is her strong suit.

This white bitch has good length of head and a correct bite. She has the right amount of bone for her size. Her underline sweeps slightly upward. She moved well today.
