About Our Judge

I remember how much I loved dogs when I was young. My father was a hunter and we had a Hungarian Vizsla at home. My loving grandmother gave me a Fox Terrier puppy for my thirteenth birthday. My Fox Terrier was only a pet but she was a real friend to me. Later, I fell in love with a young man who owned a Collie. I wanted a Collie too but my mother bought me a Dalmatian from the first litter in Slovakia. This was the reason I met my husband. He was the owner of another puppy from the same litter and together we started many activities. We started a club for Sighthounds and Dalmatians, we produced magazines, and organised dog shows for the club. However, we were not happy with the quality in our country, and decided to import a Dalmatian bitch from Luxembourg, the breeder was Barbara Kacens.

Then a famous breeder from Holland, Annie Huisman (mother of Annemieke Morgans) gave us a male for our breed. This started a big friendship, which lasted for forty years.

For me, the best thing about breeding dogs is the many friends I have made. We were very active in our breed club, and also with our friend Vlasto Vojtek, were involved in breeding Afghans. We also helped him to import the first Deerhound into the country, and took part in coursing training as well.

I got my judges license in 1976. I started with Dalmatians and then completed the Sighthound group. I have judges specials and club in many countries, and have judges also for European and World dog shows. For fifteen years I was a member of the FCI Show and Judges Commissions, and am still the supervisor for the Dalmatian breed. In Europe, we have different categories of breeds, but I am licensed to judge all Sighthounds, Dachshunds, most Gundogs, long legged Terriers, and other breeds such as Siberian Husky's, Alaskan Malamute and Akitas, totally approximately 80 breeds.

We are only a small kennel but we were very successful with our Dalmatians and we bred about 20 champions under the kennel name "Plum Pudding". At the moment we have our old Dalmatian, 3 old Fox Terriers and a Miniature Dachshund.
