Before committing to outdoor training during COVID-19 restrictions, please ensure you are happy with the following precautions and requirements implemented by the club:

- All members are highly encouraged to have the COVID Safe App on mobile phones
- Only one handler per dog (unless arranged prior) or they will be asked to wait in their car
- Members will be required to book into a session (you are not permitted to just turn up)
- Members are not permitted to attend if they have any flu-like symptoms
- Membership forms and payment to be done prior to commencing classes (if possible, by emailing through the membership form and electronic transfer of payment)
- Members details (Name, Address, Phone Number, Email) will be recorded after each session and provided by Dogs Queensland
- Physical distancing – cones and markers will be used to nominate areas for members to stand during classes and training. There will be no physical contact and trainers will use their own lead if they wish to demonstrate with a participant's dog
- Hygiene and cleaning
 - Hand hygiene – i) bathrooms have handwash and correct hand washing signage will be erected; ii) hand sanitiser will be located at the club house and at two other designated spots (at a minimum) with signage present
 - Frequently touched areas (clubhouse doors, light switches etc) and equipment to be cleaned after each training session
