The Staffordshire Bull Terrier Club Of Victoria Inc

An absolute pleasure to go over the Staffords that was entered at this show I found the quality high which makes my job all the more enjoyable, in both my line ups I was very pleased with the Staffords in front of me they really looked the business. I thank you all for the sporting manner in which you accepted my decisions and the presentation of your dogs some handlers I had to allow time to relax themselves or the dogs whatever the case was to allow me to get the best out of your charge. I would say however to some exhibitors on the topic of using treats there nothing wrong with this to get the best out of them but when a judge is going over your dog put the treats away it only distracts the dog it doesnt help and in turn can also frustrate the handler in the process. A special mention to my ring Steward Mark Mc Fadden thank you for doing a top job cool calm and collected kept the ring flowing smoothly all day also a thank you to Carol Kilby for driving us to and from the show it was a pleasure to meet you. Finally to Penni Harrison and the committee of the club thank you for the invitation I really enjoyed my weekend at your club the banter was top class you have a great show and really go all out for the exhibitors to put on a memorable show keep up the great work guys.

CRITIQUES

What an honor it was to be invited to judge the final day of the 2025 championship shows for the Staffordshire Bull Terrier Club of Victoria. Massive thanks to the exhibitors who brought 126 entries out for this occasion. Equal gratitude is extended to the show committee who put together an extremely well-run event. Without your hard, often underappreciated work none of this would be possible. Also, I'd be remiss not to extend a special Thank You to my fantastic stewards who kept me organized and made it a joy to simply focus on judging dogs and not be concerned with logistics within a system that is a bit different than what I am accustomed to.

Prior to traveling ½ way around the world to meet the beautiful Staffords of Australia, I had been briefed on what to expect. Most of this was unsolicited opinions with varying degrees of accuracy. In general the narratives I heard missed the mark, and I am delighted to say that what I found was much better than expected. To offer a couple general observations regarding the entries as a whole, I will say that the structure, soundness and movement of the Staffords at this show on average surpassed what I've found at specialty shows across the United States and in other countries. Exhibits with clean, typey heads and the proper balance of bull & terrier are fundamental to me. I found plenty of them at this show, but what surprised me was the number of entrants with proper movement and functionally healthy structure, including level toplines, even when lacking in other areas.

You will undoubtedly see some recurring themes and language in my critiques. I've always said that if you want to know what is important to a judge and perhaps even what is unacceptable to that judge, look for the common themes found within, and those conspicuously lacking from their critiques. As I see it, a critique is not an exhaustive description of every aspect of the exhibit as it relates to each and every clause within the breed standard. It is, however a brief overview of the stand-out features of the exhibit as the judge sees them, ideally providing some insight into "why" the judge placed the dogs in a particular order. I sincerely hope my words can help paint this picture for you.

Baby Puppy Dog

1st McKee's BULLYFEVA MR STEAL UR GIRL

Very well-balanced little guy with excellent proportions to the headpiece with proper bite, dark eye, and small, well-set ears. Straight bone in front with proper substance, well laid-back shoulder, nice spring of rib, short couple and back with level topline. Stood four-square with excellent angles fore and aft. Moved with purpose. Showed beautifully as if he'd been practicing for this day for years. No small feat for this 5 month old. Bested the competition with his overall balance, functional structure, and excellent headpiece. Would love to see him once mature. Happy to award him Best Baby Puppy In Show.

2nd Coetzer's ZERACIOUS RIBBON ME

Strong, pied boy with excellent bone, tidy feet, and a level topline. Good head proportions with the type of broad muzzle I want to see in pups of this age, affording plenty of room for the adult teeth to come in. Good angles up front, and showed strength in the rear. Moved very well with pride and attitude.

3rd Coetzer's ZERACIOUS WE ARE VENOM

Littermate to 2nd place which is a testament to the quality of this breeding. I Liked him for different reasons than his brother. Not as much substance, but has very good head proportions with a dark eye and good bite. The body on this little boy is excellent – similar to 1st place. Loved the balanced structure, short back, level topline and ability to naturally stand 4 square. Likely to swap placements with his littermate every other day as they mature.

Minor Puppy Dog

1st Heard's TOPLOADER VELVET SLEDGEHAMMER

Typey expression with very good proportions to his head, dark eye and excellent bite. Nicely arching muscular, short neck. Frame is appropriate for his age. Higher on the leg with plenty of room to mature.

Puppy Dog

1st McBride & Bustabones BROHEZ DEACON BRODIE

Exceptional, keen expression on this youngster. Gorgeous headpiece that exudes breed type. Neat rose ear, dark eye, and a perfect bite. Balance could not be better for his age. His strong, but athletic build is a master class in the proper balance between bull and terrier while still leaving a little room for further maturing. His angles are excellent fore and aft with a short back, close coupling and a level topline in between. Created such an overall pleasing picture whether standing 4-square or moving like a dream around the ring, he was a standout in this class and in fact amongst all the males this day. Went on to be awarded RCC because from every angle, he just wouldn't stop asking for it!

2nd Dean & Bator's HANDPIKD THE BABA YAGA

Not far behind my 1st place in this class came this striking youngster. Very strong, typey head and with great expression. A little lower on the leg than 1st, but still with an overall proper structure for his age. Excellent, straight bone up front with laid back shoulder and well bent stifle to match in the rear. Excellent blend of bull and terrier without exaggeration while leaving room to mature. Overall an excellent pup with a future to look forward to.

3rd Toostrong's TOOSTRONG HERE COMES TROUBLE

Striking brindle with excellent headpiece and expression. Muscular neck arches and gradually blends into a well laid back shoulder. Good body proportions, with plenty of room to mature.

There's a whole lot to like about this exceptional boy. Extremely clean, classy expression with excellent head shape and proportions and perfect bite. Ideal bone and substance with proper balance of bull and terrier. Short muscular neck blends seamlessly into the well laid-back shoulder.

Compact, with short back, well-sprung ribs, and level topline. Shown fit. Moved with determination and exceptional soundness.

2nd Major's CH KABERE JUST BOUT JAK O YA

Cracking boy with excellent head shape and expression. Dark eye, perfect bite, lovely rose ear. Excellent balance of strength and agility creating an overall package of proper balance, holding most everything I wanted to see. Short back, excellent angles up front, well sprung rib, level topline, short coupled. Moved exceptionally well with economy of effort. A close 2nd place to my class winner.

3rd Henderson's POWERPAWS JUS LIKE JESSE JAMES

Very competitive pied boy in a tough class. Lovely headpiece with good proportions and a nice furrow down the center created by the well-developed temporal muscles, dark eye, and tidy ears made for an overall excellent picture. Good substance to the bone created an excellent foundation for the proper structure he exhibits. Nicely balanced without exaggerations. Moved very well with purpose.

Intermediate Dog

1st Doorackers CH TAINO MY ALIBI

Loved the overall proportions and balance of this dog. Super clean head with a tight lip, no wrinkle, dark eye, neat ear, and excellent expression. Proper breed type was further apparent in the blend of strength and agility without an ounce of exaggeration. All of the structural details and angles are there too. Sound as a pound, he was shown fit and moved excellently with purpose.

2nd Ireland's STAFFLEX IM HERE SO MOVE ON

Very strong head with short muzzle, dark eye and neat ear. Moderate, balanced body without exaggeration. Good angles up front with nicely arching neck and laid-back shoulder. Short body with level topline. Squirmed a bit standing still, but moved extremely well.

3rd Powerpaws CH POWERPAWS OUTLANDER

Good headpiece with appropriate proportions, dark eye and good bite. Body follows suite with very good proportions and overall balance of Bull and Terrier. Straight bone with good angles up front and in the rear. Moved well.

Graduate Dog

Very clean head with classic expression and exceptional breed type. Dark eye, neat rose ear, and excellent bite. Nearly ideal head as the standard describes. This boy has top-shelf style from nose to tail. Nothing exaggerated. Nothing coarse. Nothing extra. Powerful, athletic body with perfect bone for his body. A bit higher on the leg with a short back, level topline, and movement that drew my attention the entire time.

2nd Lambert's WOOLOOSTAFF THE DEVIL HIS DUE

Very nice expression on this boy. Good head proportions. Dark eye, thin rose ear, proper bite, tight lips, no wrinkles on the head. Good proportions and balance to the body as well with appropriate bone, good topline and tail carriage.

2nd Lomax's KALEIDA LIGHTIN STRIKES TWICE CA

Proper headpiece on this lovely white boy. Clean outline with nicely placed rose ears and a good bite. Well muscled neck blending nicely into the body. Moderate in most every regard. No exaggerations, clean and efficient athlete with appropriate bone and muscle creating an overall pleasing package who moved quite well from every angle.

3RD McManus's TRAMAC SMOKING GUN

Who would ever guess this 10yr old boy could hold his own? He most certainly did today. Very clean, classy head with excellent expression. Moderate in every way with a proper blend of bull and terrier. Had the attitude of a youngster and the movement to match as well. A pleasure in the ring.

This boy caught my eye as soon as I saw him. Gorgeous front. Lovely, compact package with an ideal headpiece and expression. Super neat and clean with tight lips, perfect bite, dark eyes and thin rose ear. Breed type for days, but not just in the head. 1st Clark's SUP CH CAPILET DNT FEED AFTA MIDNITE

This gorgeous boy is the complete package. Clean and classy head that exudes breed type with everything in place and just as the standard describes with a class and style that goes above and beyond. Exceptional balance between bull and terrier. The very definition of incredible strength and agility all rolled into one. Excellent, I mean phenomenal, structure on this dog. If he were lacking in breed type (he most certainly isn't) his soundness would still be an absolute stand out. His muscular neck held the head high and strong blending seamlessly into the well laidback shoulder with the ideal length of upper arm. His chest is deep, ribs are well sprung, body is close coupled, and his topline is level whether standing like a marble statue or moving with effortless economy.

Delighted to award him the class, the CC, and Best In Show.

Strong hindquarters with proper bend of stifle. Structurally, very sound with excellent movement. Really, and excellent example of the breed. Graduate Bitch

1st McManus' ALPORT I'LL BE STAR GAZING

There's so much to like about this bitch. Incredibly clean and classic head without an ounce of coarseness. Tidy ears, excellent bite, and dark eye are somewhat boring descriptors for such a lovely head with alert expression. Very feminine without lacking in strength. Her body is tight and efficient with excellent angles up front and in the rear. Chest is deep, topline is level and loin is short and light. Perfect substance / bone for her size. A powerful rear propelled her with effortless movement. Always on her toes and alert despite the day's heat, it was apparent that she loved being in the ring and showing off what she's got. Happy to award her the RCC.

Stunning red bitch with strength from head to toe. Very typey head and expression with lovely temporal muscles, ideal ear set, and excellent bite. Her bone is ideal for her size and muscle up front forming a particularly pleasing picture front on. However, she doesn't disappoint from other angles as well. From the side it's more of the same excellent angle to her shoulder, short upper arm, good depth of brisket and spring of rib. Strong bitch with excellent structure and soundness and a very typey head. Excellent proportions to the skull, dark eye, good bite and tidy ears make for a lovely headpiece. Deep chest, excellent spring of rib, short, back closely coupled to the powerful, well-angulated hindquarters. Muscular, but still agile, she moved extremely well with economy of effort.

3rd Livingstone's CH LIKALOT LICENSE TO PARTY

Lovely head and expression with dark, round eye and tidy ears. Very good front with appropriate drop of brisket, straight bone, and well laid-back shoulder. Good overall balance of bull and terrier with a fit body, level topline and very efficient movement.

Neuter Dog

1st Treadwell's POWERPAWS HEATWAVE

Powerful boy with a good head and expression. Very nice front with appropriate bone for his body. Short back with a very level topline. Moved very well with purpose and drive while maintaining a level topline and low tail carriage. Really enjoyed the ring. He was smiling the entire time.

Neuter Bitch

1st Dean & Bator's GR CH NEUT CH HANDPIKD QUEEN OF DIAMONDS

Lovely pied with a beautiful head and expression. Clean, classy and feminine. Strong, but still very agile with no exaggerations. Excellent balance of bull and terrier. Handled very well and moved excellently with good reach and drive. Won the class with her better overall balance.

2nd Butchers's NEUT. CH. DUAL. CH. (T) PUPPYBLUE ABBY CD. RAE. TK.S. RM

Lovely blue with very good head proportions and shape. Tidy, well-placed ears finish off her classic expression. Good balance to her body with appropriate substance and very nice structure underneath for the foundation. Another very good mover on the day.
